Only One Favorite in Front at Benning.

MILLER ON THREE FIRSTS

WINNERS

Nationals Had Fast Practice This Morning-Hoppe Defeated Slosson -Bowling Congress Ends.

A touch of spring weather yesterday drew out a large crowd to Benning. Barring a high wind, the climatic conditions were comparatively pleasant, and public patronage is almost certain to increase as the weather becomes more seasonable. An offlcial report by the club of Monday's assemblage shows it to have been the largest at the opening of any previous meeting.

While there were no stake events decided yesterday, the day's sport was interesting from the first jump. The track was dried out to a degree, assisted materially by the wind, which the horses got in their teeth on the backstretch, but on their backs in the run up the long homestretch, which made matters pretty even in that respect.

And as the public picked the right horses pretty regularly the layers had to return some of their heavy winnings of Monday. While only one post favorite won yesterday second and third choices landed each of the other five events, and all were played excepin one instance.

For those who follow certain jockeys the afternoon was noteworthy. Young Miller, who made such a good record here last fall and in California this winter, was much in evidence, winning three times, with two seconds and one third on his other mounts. Jockey T. Burns rode two of the other three winners, the two boys almost securing the whole card between them.

Oxnard Stable Candidates Perform.

From a class standpoint the two-yearold race was the feature. Of the sixteen colored on the card one declined the issue, leaving the large field of fifteen to go to the Included in this party were no less than six Oxnard Dinner stake youngsters, who are making their first appearance at the barrier in this public trial for the stake a Saturday next.

Of these Lady Vera and Melting made decidedly the best showing, with Alegra out of the money but in front of her fellow Oxnard opponents Manila, Mary Curtis and L'Orpheline. The winner, Lady Vera, own-ed by William Garth, showed a fine per-formance. She has been leased to S. C. oss Columbia stable for Saturday's stake. Melting. Robert Neville's filly, beat the thers yesterday as easily as Lady Vera her, and is almost certain to show better on Saturday. On that occasion she will carry the colors of H. A. Seymour, who has leased her for the stake. Col. Neville's Alegra, who will represent her own-er in Saturday's stake, showed a fair performance by landing in fifth place.

Manila, Mary Curtis and L'Orpheline fin-Ished further back, but all three were rather green at the barrier and will gain experience each time they come to the post. three have been leased by their owners to other parties for Satur-day's stake, Manila to George Howard, Mary Curtis to George Hellen and L'Orpheline to Horace Westcott. Already interest in the decision of Saturday's event outranks that felt in any race at the meeting.

Botanist Runs Away.

The race was marked by the downfall of a good thing, Botanist, under sensational circumstances. Very rarely does a two-yearold run away with Jockey Shaw, but that is what Botanist did. The son of Boanges bucked like a broncho in the paddock, broke his gear and raised Cain generally. Then, after Shaw got him out of the gate, he ran away some three furlongs at top speed, in spite of all his rider could do.

This did not tend to sooth the feelings of those who had backed Botanist heavily from sixes to twos, at which price he went to the post favorite. Trained in the local stable NATIONALS SECURED of F. T. Miller, the colt had a large District following, and his followers came down with a thump by his failure to make good. At that Botanist showed a fair perform ance and but for his craziness might have justified his support. A quick breaker, he got away in front, but Lady Vera and Melting outran him in the first furlong, the race thereafter always being between the pair. The colt Powderhorn, in Scully's stable, showed well by landing in third place. Bot-

The winner had so much left that she is The winner had so much left that she is very apt to start favorite for Saturday's stake. By Woolsthrope-Philura, Lady Vera is bred in the purple. During the day Trainer James Whalen received a telegram from Jockey Radtke, at Hot Springs, that he would be here Saturday to ride the Belmont candidate in the stakes.

Hocus Pocus Shows Speed.

As between two New Orleans performers Disobedient and Hocus Pocus the talent was pretty evenly divided. But the filly has been here longer than the colt, and as carried the most money, although the colt went to the post the choice.

Disobedient did not fill the eye any too well in the post parade, and is evidently not yet back in his best form of last year. At that the winner got such a lead at the marrier rise by securing a flying start that the others were 'tiptoed' from the first jump to get to her. This Disobedient did at the turn, and his backers were jubilant for an instant, but the effort told and the filly drew away in the run home. Watercourse in this race showed a good neglected when he meets his own class. Old Guard ran as if he was short, and the race should benefit him. The California filly Bribery, just off the cars, evidently seeds time to recuperate a bit.

by carrying liberal odds to victory over the heavily played Judge White. All of Trainer Garth's friends and many others as well supported the Judge very heavily, but second place was the best he could do. The winner did not do much in California this winter, but last spring at New York he was a very fast horse. Robert Walden now has him in charge.

Baltimoreans Are Tickled.

To say that a large delegation of Baltimore friends of Carter Hall were pleased ft mildly. Some of them got as good as 7 dents who have been reading in The Star about the filly's good work last week were also busy, she went to the post at a shorter same time it was perhaps lucky for her backers that the California filly Daruma, played to the limit by the men from the coast, got shut off at the start, and had ground to make up thereby. Daruma even with this setback ran an impressive race. but was no doubt a bit short, as she had all she could do to beat the Belmont colt all she could do to beat the Belmont colt Bivouac for the place. The latter finished strong and evidently likes a route.

Many of Garth's friends dropped most of their Lady Vera winnings on Hyperion in the third event. The horse was one of the most heavily played favorites of the day, but either the weight or the slow track, or both, seemed to anchor him in the race.

Delphie, a local favorite after her good form here last fall outstayed the party in form here last fall, outstayed the party in the last quarter after Echodale, Winchester could not make the handsome black stay

Yorkshire Led Rompers Home. With Ben Hodder scratched, Yorkshire Lad looked a "moral," the larger speculators going to him in impressive fashion. They landed their wagers very easily, aided by a mix-up at the start, in which the Daly pair Sallor Boy and Caronal collided and were virtually left. The ex-jockey George Barber, now trainer, got in from New York yesterday with the long-shot "runner-up" of last fall, George F. Ahearn.

Jockey C. Morris, who has been riding so well at New Orleans this winter for large and the state of th

James Arthur and other owners, will re-main here for the meeting and then go north. He rides at ninety-two pounds, and T. E. Crist has charge of his mounts. The seven club house commissioners who have compiled with the $5,000 bond stipulation are William DuBois, John Walters, J. Dahlman, H. Collins, T. Burke, M. Lynch and G. Van Gasbeck. The man-agement of speculation here is a credit to the club. No clique of operators is recognized, and Manager Cavanagh is giving new men as much consideration as the formerly autocratic "Mets." The speculative end of the sport is under bet-ter control than in any previous year.

GOOD PRACTICE

The Nationals, led on by the veteran Cross, were at American League park as early as 9 o'clock this morning, and they worked until 11, when they were driven to cover by the groundkeeper, who is anxious to get the field in first-class shape as early as possible. There were full 200 "fans" on hand to look the boys over, and it was the unanimous opinion of the crowd that the new men are strictly all right.

Otto Williams had his first good work-out of the season, and when he trudged to the club house at the close of practice he was almost all in. He is an unusually fast man on his feet, and although he guarded his arm carefully, he demonstrated that he is an exceptionally good infielder, and will make the other boys do their best to keep him off the regular line-up.

Smith was on first, Schalfly on second, Williams at short and Cross on third, with Rapp behind the bat. This outfit worked almost like a machine, Cross acting as a pacemaker, and the crowd frequently applauded the clever stops and accurate throwing. Schalfly worked with Williams in the most accurate fashion, and one of the enthusiastic "fans" remarked that The Star hadn't praised the ex-Portland lad any too much. Henline was the only regular outfielder to chase the balls, the youngster getting his first good workout for over a week, although John Anderson was at the park, but confined his practice to hitting Manager Stahl and his companions will return this afternoon from Chester, Pa., where they attended the funeral of Joe Cassidy, and will start practice in earnest at the park tomorrow morning.

Jack Dunn and his band of Providence players were out in left field batting up flies to the boys and sneaked in a little practice. He expected to work his team at the park all this week, but the early return of the Nationals has crowded him out. He of the Nationals has crowded him out. He then tried to secure Georgetown Field, but met with refusal, and Dunn said he would try to get permission this afternoon from the George Washington boys to use their

Although the playing field is rough, the new groundkeeper, Frank New-house, who was formerly sparring partner of Battling Nelson, says that he will have everything in apple pie order in a couple of days. The wind and sun dried out the mud nicely and the players had little trouble getting over the ground.

Big Price Paid for Ball Player.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 28.-President Lennon of the St. Paul American Association base ball club yesterday purchased Catcher Lewis Drill from the Detroit American League club. The consideration is said to be the largest ever paid by a minor league club for a player. Drill comes to St. Paul at his own request, as he is a member of a St. Paul legal firm and desired to be in St. Paul as much as possible, to be able to attend to his private business. HOPPE BEAT SLOSSON: KEEPS BILLIARD TITLE

NEW YORK, March 28.-Wil ie Hoppe defeated George F. Slosson by a score of 500 to 391 in the match for the world's championship at 18-inch balk line billiards, one shot in, played at the Grand Central Palace last night.

Blosson was the challenger for and Hoppe the defender of the title which the latter won from Maurice Vignaux in Paris on January 15 last. The winner led throughout the match.

Hoppe averaged 10 30-47 and Slosson 8 23-46. Hoppe made high runs of 56, 45 and 42, and Slosson of 61, 53 and 30. Never before in the history of billiards in this city had such a large gathering of men and women assembled to see an important match. The seating room of the blg hall in Grand Central Palace, estimated at 2,100, was filled quickly, and standing room was at a premium.

Over 3,000 persons saw the match, which was for $500 a side, the world's champion-ship at 18.1 balk line billiards, the championship emblem, valued at $500, and the net gate receipts.

Table Satisfactory.

Hoppe was early on hand and Slosson arrived about 8 o'clock. After having examined the table and pronounced it satisfactory both players were surrounded by their partisans and kept up a brisk conversation until the weighing of the ivories. which was done by Edward McLaughlin, the referee.

Hoppe won the "bank." He selected the white ball and led off with a miss. Slosson also failed to score, and Hoppe followed suit. Slosson, with a single carom, broke the ice, but missed a seemingly easy three cushion shot. Hoppe scored one in each of the third and fourth innings, and Slosson added one more in the fourth. This slow Hoppe redeemed himself by a carefully played run of 21, which included a brilliant ur cushion gathering shot. Slosson got the balls in nice position, and soon ran up 21, tying the score. Hoppe Starts Badly.

Hoppe added only 6 to his score, slipping up on a short draw. Slosson contributed 13 more, failing on a short draw also. After several pretty gathering shots Hoppe missed a single cushion attempt after scoring 16 caroms.

Slosson made one in the seventh inning and Hoppe gathered in 14. Slosson failed to count in the eighth, and Hoppe added 22 to his string in the ninth, making his total 81 to Slosson's 77. Slosson tied the score and passed Hoppe again with six open table caroms. Hoppe passed the 100 mark in the Hoppe maintained his lead up to the

At the conclusion of the thirtieth inning the scores were Hoppe 286; Slosson, 239 the scores were: Hoppe, 266; Slosson, 258. Hoppe seemed to have perfect control of the lyories in his thirty-first inning, but fell down on a two cushion draw after he had made a run of 30. This made his total 304 to Slosson's 275. CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNEY defeat of Percy D. Haughton and Quincy A. Shaw of Boston, at the hands of G. H. Brooke and R. K. Cassatt of Philadelphia, was the feature of the first round in the national doubles championship at racquets on the courts of the New York Racquet and Tennis Club yesterday. Two other matches were played. George R. Fearing and H. D. Scott of Boston defeated Messrs, F. and R. P. Huntington of this city, in straight sets, while Lawrence Waterbury and Charles E. Sands of the home club won in a similar manner from Barclay Warburton and W. E. Bates of Philadel-

To finish the first round Clarence H.

To finish the first round Clarence H. Mackay and George C. Clark, jr., of New York, will have to meet Truxton T. Hare and Willing Spencer of Philadelphia, this morning. The winner of the above match will play Brooke and Cassatt this afternoon, while Fearing and Scott will meet Waterbury and Sands.

So as not to have the two Boston teams in the same half of the draw, Fearing and Scott were changed overnight from the bottom to the top, an irregular act in a national contest. This was how Fearing and Scott came to be playing the Messrs. Huntington, The team work of the former pair was admirable, but Fearing did the more bribliant work. He had a world of speed, placed with rare precision, and returned backhand strokes from trying angles with scarcely an effort. gles with scarcely an effort.

By the way Haughton and Shaw started off with Brooke and Cassatt it looked like a quick exit for the Philadelphians. The a quick exit for the Philadelphians. The pace was fast in the first game, which finally went to Boston, 18—13. More of the same kind of play in the second game left Haughton and Shaw winners again, 15—12, but the wind of the Boston pair was gone, and the superior condition of Brooke and Cassatt told thereafter.

Waterbury and Sands showed up strongly, and the opinion expressed among the critics was that they could have gone even faster if pushed. even faster if pushed.

CONTEST WITH REVOLVERS.

Minute Men's Team Defeats Teams

From Fort Myer and Baltimore. The revolver team of the Minute Men last evening defeated the teams from Fort Myer and Baltimore. The local men made 1,466 points, while their opponents made 1,248 and 1,195, respectively. The contest was held in the armory of the Minute Men near 5th and L streets northwest. Y. M. C. A. BEAT WEBSTER AT BASKET BALL

The Y. M. C. A. Reserves of the intermediate department boys' building played a fast game of basket ball last night with Webster School of this city. The score was 35 to 7 in favor of the Y. M. C. A. team at the end of the second half. Features of the playing were the goal throwing of Detweiler, who threw six goals during the game, and the playing of Schmid and Eichelberger. For the Webster team Johnson and Cassidy did good work. The line-up was as follows

Referee - Ed. Shoane. Timer - George Shoane. Twenty-minute halves. Goals-Detweller, 6; Eichelberger, 3; Kuehn, 2; Schmid, 3; Nash, 1; Johnson, 2; Cassidy, 1. Free throws-Schmid, 4; Cassidy, 1; Kuehn, 1. Fouls-Johnson, 8; Cassidy, 7; McDonald, 3; Schmid, 1; Detweller, 1; Burton, 1; Eichelberger, 2.

Basket Ball Tonight.

The lovers of basket ball of the District of Columbia will have an opportunity of seeing one of the best games of basket ball that has ever been seen in this city tonight, when the two crack professional teams representing St. Stephen's Institute and Washington Light Infantry Armory of the south. Each team has won one game, the other resulting in a tie, and as the men of both teams are in the best condition a hotly contested game is ex-pected. The series for the championship is the best three out of five games. The teams will line-up:

FOOT BALL SUSPENDED. Important Action by Athletic Committee of Madison, Wis. CHICAGO, March 23 .- A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Madison, Wis., says: The athletic committee of the faculty of the University of Wisconsin last night voted to recommend the suspension of foot ball for one year and to allow base ball, track and crew athletics to continue if they are self-sustaining. The announcement of the decision was not favorably received by the student body and a demonstration was made in disapproval of the action. Members of the track team declare that it will practically be impossible for the team to go ahead with its training and compete in the intercollegiate meet under the circumstances.

The members of the crew which expected to participate in the crew which expected to participate in the regatta at Poughkeepsie also talk the same way. Nearly all of the athletic branches at Wisconsin depend for financial support upon the foot ball department sand Wisconsin University students, garbd in white night shirts and armed with re volvers, paraded the streets last night shouting their disapproval of the faculty committee's action in abolishing foot ball for a year. A huge bonfire was lighted on the lower campus, where the effigy of Prof. F. E. Turner was burned amid boisterous dummy, representing Prof. D. C. Munroe, was hanged from a tree and burned. The parade was started on Mendota court, n the fraternity section, by twenty students brandishing revolvers and shotguns. fifteen minutes practically the entire student body was in line, shouting "Death to the faculty who abolished foot ball." The first stopping place was Prof. F. E. urner's home. "When can we have foot

'urner's home. "W 'When you can have a clean game,' replied. "It has been so rotten for the last ten years that it is impossible to purge it." Prof. Turner's words were met with hisse and shouts of "Put him in the lake." Prof. C. S. Slichter refused to make an appearance. At Dean Birge's house the dean said: "I understand the sentiments of this crowd to be for foot ball. I shall convey hose sentiments to the faculty at the next The mob then marched around the town gathering up wooden sidewalks, fences and other burnable material. The fire depart-ment was called out to extinguish Prof. Turner's effigy. The flames enveloped it.

Sullivan-Russell Bout Tonight.

One of the chief points discussed in connection with tonight's fifteen-round encounter between "Kid" Sullivan, the wellknown Washington boxer, and Unk Russell, the much-touted Philadelphia lightweight, before the Eureka Athletic Club of Baltimore, is whether or not the match will be the last one of any importance to be held in Baltimore for many years. Legis-lation is now on at Annapolis that if car-ried through will put a ban on boxing all over the state. That fact adds extra interest to the contest, which gives every promise of being one of the best of the season. Russell is a six-round boxer who has made a big name for himself in the Quaker City. This is practically his first bout of any account to go a distance of fifteen rounds. To win over the mighty clever Washington boy will be a feather in Russell's cap, even though he has a few pounds advantage in On the other hand, if Sullivan downs his larger opponent from Pennsylvania, it will be worth many more bouts for him and help him in his bid for a bout with the battiling Dane.

"Charley" White, the well-known New Yorker, will act as referee, and this as-sures the fact that both contestants and public will get a square deal.

MORO RACE HOPELESS.

Present Generation Unable to Appreciate Western Civilization.

At a meeting of the Anthropological Soclety held last evening at the Cosmos Club, Dr. Albert E. Jenks, head of the ethnological survey of the Philippines, and Mr. W E Safford, late governor of Guam, discussed the language, social customs and habits of the various peoples of the Philippine Islands.

Dr. Jenks, who spoke of the "Peopling of the Philippines," flustrated by stereoption views, said the Chinese formed the only progressive body of native inhabitants, and would toll with a purpose of securing more than sufficient more than su more than sufficient money to satisfy im-mediate needs. The only Filipinos, he said, who ever impressed their personality on the people were those who had an admix-ture of Spanish or Chinese blood. Dr. Jenks stated that he could see no hope for the present generation of the Moro race. They are cruel, lying, thieving and deceitful people, incapable of becoming assimilated with the western civilization. He predicted that under the care and training of the American teachers and missioneries the next generation will be bet sionaries, the next generation will be better. He said that at the time of the American occupation of the Philippines less than 1 per cent of the inhabitants could read

THE PLEASURE CRAFT. Owners Getting Ready for the Spring and Summer.

The large Eastern Shore canoe which Mr. G. F. Neitzey brought to this city last fall from the eastern shore of Virginia, is lying in the boat house at the foot of 13th street and is to be equipped with a power engine and converted into a pleasure craft for use on the river during the coming summer. The canoe has been stripped of spars and sails, center board well and everything, leaving only the bare hull. A roomy cabin, with sleeping accommodations for about four persons, is to be built on the boat, and a 10-horse power gasoline engine will be placed in her. The boat when she goes overboard will be named Ella N. in honor of Mr. Neitzey's wife. The little craft is expected to develop high speed and will, it is stated, be the only canoe-hull launch in service on the river. Capt. J. F. Conners has his little power launch, the Chicago, at Reagan's boat house for her spring overhauling and painting, in preparation for the coming season on the river. The Chicago has been in service for several weeks, her owner using her for fishing trips on the river. She was out yesterday in the heavy south gale, and in coming around from the Long bridge the Georgetown channel was so rough that the ly drenched by the water from the seas breaking over her and washing in upon them. She made good time in spite of the heavy weather and arrived at Reagan's in

The sailing sloop Culprit Fay, owned by Capt. Herbert Evans, is also at Iteagan's for her spring painting and cleaning up. It is understood that the Culprit Fay will be made an auxiliary power craft, her owner having determined to equip her with a 10-horse power gasoline engine.

Washington Rechabites in Baltimore. Special Correspondence of The Star.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 28, 1906. Good Samaritan Tent, No. 1103, Independent Order of Rechabites, had quite a rally in Cooke's Hall, on Schroeder street, last evening. The hall was crowded with members of the order to greet the High Tent officers and others from Washington, These officers were: High chief ruler, Wayne W. Cordell; past high chief ruler, John C. Mcore; high secretary, William B. Kelly; high treasurer, James H. Dony; high chaplain, John J. Coulter; high levite, Mrs. Lola V. Marks; high guard, Frank B. Marks; Mrs. May Rowe, chief ruler, On-ward Tent, No. 1021; Mrs. John C. Moore of Purity Tent, No. 4; J. C. Eller, high deputy ruler; Edwin V. Bennett of John B. Henderson Tent, No. 1089, and Mrs. Stella Stewart, chief ruler of Eastport Tent No. 1099 of Eastport, Md.

The officers of the High Tent instructed the local tent in the private work and made some suggestions as to the proper manage-ment of a tent.

Under "good of the order" the high chief ruler gave a glowing account of the prog-ress of the organization and impressed upon the local members the necessity of consering the work of the order a "life work." The past high chief ruler paid tribute to the members for increasing threefold. Re-marks were also made by visitors, and Edwin V. Bennett enlivened the proceed-ings with several comic and sentimental songs. The Washington contingent re-turned on the midnight train.

Boyds and Vicinity.

BOYD'S, Md., March 28, 1906. Mr. Hugh Ogden, railroad conductor, reports that his father, T. A. Ogden, while running a saw on the premises of Mr. E. R. McDonald, near Middletown, Va., disclosed a cannon ball in a large white oak closed a cannon ball in a large white oak log. The ball, it is believed, was fired during the battle of Cedar Creek.

The ministers of the Northern and Southern Methodist denominations of this county have gone to conference. The former denomination is meeting in Baltimore, and the latter in Cumberland.

Maynard Seliman of the Poolesville base hall team of last year will leave next week for Wheeling. W. Va. He has signed with the Wheeling team of the Central League.
